

Ms. A. 1.1 v. 2 p. 35
Brooklyn, Aug. 18, 1836.

Dear bro. George:

35- A word in your ear. Accompanying this is a packet from bro. May, directed to Prof. Wright at New-York. It is important that it should be sent safely and speedily to the "big city," as it encloses a long and able article on the Constitution from the pen of S. J. M. for insertion in the next Am. Quarterly & S. S. Review. Now, without wishing to give you any trouble, it is our desire that you will forward it, if you can, by to-morrow's boat, so that it may be delivered in the course of Saturday - as Prof. W. was promised that he should have it by the 20th inst. (By the way, father enters upon his 85th year on that day. His health is excellent.)

I have sent $25.00 to sister Charlotte, to purchase sundry articles for Helen and the babe. Should there be enough left, will you discharge my bill at Dr. M'Intyre's? My nose is about healed up, and gives me no longer any trouble, although it is still somewhat red. Whether it will trouble me as winter approaches, I cannot of course predict - but hope it will not. The value of the salve, snuff, and other medicine I had of the Dr. did not probably cost him 50 cts. including a junk-bottle - however, if he does not charge me more than $5, I shall be content. I leave the settlement with you. He will probably desire something in the shape of a certificate from me - but if it were a more important case, I would give it.

Am happy to hear that you and cousin Chace have commenced lecturing in good earnest - hope you will rival Weld and Stanton. Dear Birney! what honors the vile are heaping upon him! These are notable times to live in - in God be our trust.

Every affec. yours,

Wm. Lloyd Garrison.
